

ASUU Urges FG to Implement UTAS

The Academic Staff Union of Universities, ASUU, on Friday, called on the Federal Government to fast track the adoption of the University Transparency Accountability Solutions, (UTAS), as a reliable payment system for the Union.

ASUU equally said that it was worried over Federal Government's (FG), inability to release funds for the revitalisation of public universities, and the May 2021 tranche of Earned Academic Allowances (EAA), adding that the Union would consider the option of resuming its suspended industrial action should FG continue with its delay tactics in fulfilling the already signed agreement.

The Coordinator of Nsukka Zone of ASUU, Comrade Raphael Amokaha, disclosed these issues at the University of subjected to series of tests, including demonstration to the “End-Users,” drawn from the bursary and registry units of federal universities and proven to be suitable for Nigerian University System.

He also said ASUU, therefore, cannot understand the continued delay by government in adopting and deploying UTAS as an alternative to IPPIS which has failed in all ramifications. It is to be noted that this government has been advocating for local content in every percept of Nigerian development efforts. UTAS therefore, is a home grown programme that has been shown to be a viable solution to a Nigerian University System problem.

There is no rational consideration why government should be foot-dragging instead of adopting and deploying UTAS with excitement that its own academic industry has come up with a cutting-edge solution,” he declared.

“On the issues of funding for revitalisation of public universities and earned academic allowances, ASUU-Nsukka Zone is aware that letters were to be written by 3rd August, 2021 from the Ministry of Education to CBN to transfer funds for the revitalisation of public universities to the NEEDS Assessment account; and same Ministry of Education was to write another letter to the Ministry of Finance to release the May 2021 tranche of Earned Academic Allowances and copy the Ministry of Labour and Employment.”

The Coordinator stated that “Actions are still being awaited on these issues. Efforts were also to be made by the Ministry of Finance to release 10.9% of N203 billion (22.127 billion) already appropriated in the budget of 2021, this too is yet to be done.”

The Zone was worried that the urgency in writing inter ministerial letters only comes to play when meetings between Government and our Union was scheduled. He expressed apprehension that ASUU has given government the benefit of doubt and any further delay may portend returning to the industrial action.

The Union also said that its national officers had commence the process of working with the NUC to submit to the National Assembly, a bill to amend the NUC Act which would empower it to reduce the level of proliferation of universities by state governments.

On the renegotiation of the 2009 FGN-ASUU agreement, the Union said “The Zone is concerned about the intentions of government because, the draft Agreement was ready as at May, 2021, and by 2nd August, 2021 (two months later), the Minister of Labour and Employment is merely hoping that the Inter-Ministerial Committee would have concluded work on the draft agreement for submission to government by the end of August, 2021. Alas! We are already in the second week of September and no actions have been taken yet.”

The Union also said that the speedy conclusion and signing of the draft agreement would enhance industrial harmony in the Nigerian University System, and create an enabling environment for improved academic activities and competitive research.

The Union equally called on the FG to expedite action on the resolution of the pending/contentious issues in the December 2020 Memorandum of Action (MoA).

The ASUU-Nsukka Zone comprises the Union branches at Benue State University, Makurdi; Enugu State University of Science and Technology, Enugu; Federal University of Agriculture, Makurdi; Federal University, Lokoja; Federal University, Wukari; Kogi State University, Anyigba; as well as University of Nigeria, Nsukka (UNN).

ability of the newly appointed Secretary-General of the 54-year-old Association of African Universities (AAU), Professor Olusola Bandele Oyewole, to excel in office in the overall benefits of the universities in Africa.

Oyewole's appointment was announced last month by the outgoing President of AAU, Professor Antonio Orlando Quilambo – the Rector of Eduardo Mondlane University, Mozambique – at the virtual extra-ordinary general conference of the association.

The new Secretary-General, who is the immediate past vice chancellor of the Federal University of Agriculture, Abeokuta (FUNAAB), and will resume on October 1, 2021, is replacing an Ivorian scholar, Professor Etienne Ehouan Ehile who served for nine years. The AAU headquarters is in Accra, Ghana.

The NUC in a letter signed by its Executive Secretary, Professor Abubakar Adamu Rasheed, stated that with Oyewole's wealth of experience "as a visionary leader, a seasoned administrator as well as a scholar of international repute," his tenure would witness the much-needed reforms in higher education in Africa.

"I am confident that with your wealth of experience, you will succeed in taking Africa's Higher Education portfolio, to enviable heights," the Commission said, stressing that Oyewole's appointment was in recognition of the professor of Food Science and Technology's sterling qualities as a visionary leader, a seasoned administrator as well as a scholar of international repute.

Professor Rasheed said: "I have received with utmost pride and a deep sense of fulfilment the good news of your recent appointment as the Secretary-General of the Association of African Universities (AAU).

"This appointment, I believe, has been made in recognition of your sterling qualities as a visionary leader, a seasoned administrator as well as a scholar of international repute.

"This is also an indication that your huge contributions to the development of university education in Nigeria and the African continent have not been in vain."

He pledged the unwavering commitment of the commission in partnering with the association in "those cross-cutting areas that would be mutually beneficial to both the NUC in particular, and the NUS in general."

Oyewole, a specialist in Food Microbiology and Biotechnology, had at the virtual meeting commended the association's governing board on the confidence expressed in him to serve.

He declared: "My vision is to amplify the relevance of the Association of African Universities as the voice of higher education in Africa.

“Without strong partnerships and collaborations, the association would be unable to achieve her grand mission of improving the quality of African higher education.”

A 3 DAY TRAINING FOR TECHNOLOGISTS IN TERTIARY INSTITUTIONS Theme: Repositioning University Technologists for Excellence

Date: 24th – 27th October, 2021 Venue: No. 4, Parakou Street, Wuse II, Abuja - Nigeria.

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Scientific research in Nigerian Universities and Research institutes is considered insufficient, therefore demand for quality research and research output from Nigerian Universities has continued to increase. The COVID-19 pandemic further exposes the weak research infrastructure (human resources and research facilities) in Nigerian Universities. Participation in international research projects by Nigerian Universities is very limited due to weak institutional capacities and resources. Therefore, Nigeria like many other African countries does not benefit from the tremendous financial windfall that can accrue to countries where scientists produce more research and patents. An estimated 1% of World total scientific knowledge is produced from Africa despite comprising 12.5 percent of the world's population. Additionally, STEM research makes up only 29% of Sub-Saharan African's research output, leaving a gap in many critical fields with potentials for rapid national development. Although there is increased awareness on the role universities can play in economic development through quality research, strategic effort is required to identify areas of intervention. Core to improving research output in Nigeria is the need to improve capacity of Laboratory Technologists to deliver on their mandate as well as become better equipped and exposed to new techniques and methodologies.

TARGET AUDIENCE Senior Laboratory Technologists from Universities, other Tertiary Institutions & Research Institutes

SOME KEY QUESTIONS TO BE ADDRESSED ARE:

1. What is my role as a technologist and how can I contribute to national research output

DOCTOR OF PHARMACY (PHARM. D) PROGRAMME IN NIGERIAN UNIVERSITIES

The attention of the National Universities Commission has been drawn to the anomaly identified with the Bachelor of Pharmacy (B. Pharm) and Doctor of Pharmacy (Pharm. D) programmes in some Nigerian Universities.

The Executive Secretary has therefore directed that I convey to the Vice-Chancellors of Nigerian Universities as follows:

1. The B. Pharm and Pharm. D are two separate degrees programmes awarded in the Nigerian University System. The duration for the award of the B. Pharm degree is 5 academic sessions and 6 academic sessions for Pharm.D through the UTME entry mode. Prior to 2015, Universities have been awarding the B. Pharm which is still obtainable and approved by the NUC. However, in a bid to expand the Pharmacy profession to incorporate pharmaceutical care and accommodate clinical demand within the Nigerian educational system, the Pharm. D programme was introduced.
2. The Philosophy behind the establishment of Pharm.D programme in Nigerian Universities is "to provide students with a broad balanced foundation in all the areas of Pharmaceutical Knowledge to further equip them with the ability to apply Pharmaceutical knowledge in health care delivery system; acquire professional skills to identify and resolve drug related problems and to impact to the students, a comprehensive knowledge of Pathophysiology, Therapeutics, Pharmacokinetics and Toxicology among several other aims and objectives".

Website: <http://www.nuc.edu.ng>

3. To this end, it is necessary to clarify to all Nigerian Universities that;
- B. Pharm and Pharm. D are the two distinct degrees awarded under the Pharmacy discipline and not to be interchanged;
 - B. Pharm and Pharm. D are both undergraduate programmes;
 - B. Pharm does not serve as a bridge to the award of Pharm. D;
 - Conversion programmes or top-up aimed at upgrading B. Pharm to Pharm.D is not approved by the Commission; and
4. In view of the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubts, it is illegal for any University to run conversion programmes from B. Pharm to Pharm. D.
5. The table below shows the Universities the National Universities Commission has granted approval to run the Pharm D. program.
