JAMB: Senate Wants NIN Dropped

Due to challenges encountered by applicants for the 2021 Unified Tertiary Matriculation Examination (UTME), the Senate has urged Federal Government to review the implementation of the policy that made National Identification Number (NIN), a prerequisite for the long queues under scorching sun and counselled to indulge in some unwholesome practices to enable them register. After coming to terms with the challenges posed by the requirement, JAMB last week extended registration for UTME by two weeks.

examination.

The Joint Admissions and Matriculation Board (JAMB) had insisted that the NIN was mandatory for the 2021 UTME.

But candidates had been complaining that the NIN requirement had added to their registration predicament.

Many of them said they were being extorted, made to stay on asked the Federal Ministry of Education (FME), JAMB, and the National Identity Management Commission (NIMC) to review the policy with a view to extending the UTME registration deadline until there was a seamless and well-organised process for obtaining the NIN.

The lawmakers also urged the FME and NIMC to introduce and streamline a simple and decentralised NIN registration said there was inadequate awareness on NIN at the grassroots, secondary schools and universities, as many students still do not know that the said NIN was a requirement for registration.

The lawmaker, therefore, urged schools to ensure that NIN was not made compulsory for participation in any exam.
